Figure 18: Interactions of the marine food web with biogeochemical cycles and biosphere-climate feedbacks. Fluxes with “+?” indicate unknown but potentially important increases to fluxes as a result of sea ice loss in the Arctic Ocean. Two-way arrows indicate exchanges in both directions, and “+” indicates potential increases in atmospheric components that influence the Earth’s radiation budget.

Graphic design by Russ Mitchell